VAS INTERNATIONAL HONORARY AWARDS

20th European Angiology Days

1-3 December, 2023

THE GUSTAV V.R. BORN VAS INTERNATIONAL HONORARY AWARD

for Research in Vascular Medicine

MISSION

To foster research in vascular disorders through recognition of research excellence in the fields of public health, vascular medicine, vascular biology, haemostasis, atherosclerosis, thrombosis and platelet function.

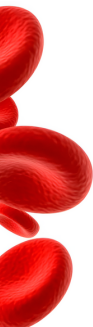

Prof. Gustav V.R. Born (Gus for his friends) has been a VAS member since 1998, chairman of the VAS Ethics and Guarantors Committees and teacher in several Master and Postgraduates Courses.

THE AWARD

The VAS awards every other year a prize to honour personalities worldwide who have distinguished themselves in medical research on public health, vascular medicine, vascular biology, haemostasis, atherosclerosis, thrombosis and platelet pathophysiology.

As a rule, the prize is usually awarded on the occasion of the annual VAS Academic meeting (European Angiology Days –end November each year) to one scientist.

Awardees receive a honorary plaque and become member of the VAS International Academy.
